FASTING GUIDELINES

Consecration Period

The consecration period begins on Monday, April 14 and ends on Good Friday, April 18 (at the conclusion of the noonday prayer).

Fasting

The fasting period is from midnight-4:00 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and from midnight to 12:30 p.m. on Friday. During this period, refrain from all food and drink except for water and 100% juice. Everyone is encouraged to participate in some form of denial for the sake of unity and for spiritual benefits. Those of senior age or with medical conditions should consult with their health care provider before making changes to their diet. Fasting for children and teens is at the discretion and supervision of parents.

Restrictions and Denials

- Limit social media activity to spiritual posts and interactions.
- Limit TV, radio, and reading to news, educational, and religious content.
- Outside of work, limit conversation on phones and other devices to business and spiritual matters.
- Outside of work, limit use of computer/internet to religious, educational, and news pursuits.
- Refrain from secular entertainment and outings.
- Married couples are encouraged to observe 1 Corinthians 7:5.
